

- ✓ Want to be a part of something wonderful?
- ✓ Want to help kids with cancer go to summer camp?
- ✓ Want to help make it free so every kid can go?

Then join us on Sept. 8th to learn all about Camp Quality Black Hills, a non-profit organization whose mission is to:

'Let Kids with Cancer Be Kids Again'

We provide a free one week summer camp and some year round activities for kids with cancer. We are a new non-profit camp organization that is part of the national Camp Quality USA non-profit organization, who currently has 16 camps for kids with cancer in the United States. The children in our Black Hills area who have missed out on just being kids will be treated to an experience of a lifetime. Come learn all about what we intend to accomplish and then help us make it happen!

Details

September 8, 2018 at 9am
Dakota Frontier Camp
12913 Bear Butte Lake Road, Whitewood, SD 57793

Come join us at Dakota Frontier Camp, located one mile west of the Bear Butte State Campground near Sturgis. We will be having an informational meeting to tell you all about the free summer camp for kids who have/had cancer. Dakota Frontier Camp and Camp Quality Black Hills are teaming up to give kids impacted by cancer the chance to be kids again. They may be in treatment or in remission. For more information and a camp tour please come on September 8th at 9am for a light breakfast and a question and answer time. The Dakota Frontier Camp is owned, operated and built by the Johnson Family of Johnson Real Estate in Sturgis. Camp Quality is a worldwide organization and Camp Quality Black Hills is the only Camp Quality in South Dakota.

How you can help!

1. Pass the word to kids that have/had cancer and their families.
2. Volunteer at camp.
3. Support with your time and/or donations.

If you have any questions please contact us:

Dennae Russell (Director Camp Quality Black Hills) dennae.russell@campqualityusa.org

Facebook – www.facebook.com/dennae.russell

Website – www.campqualityusa.org

Diane Johnson 605-490-1252.

We are looking forward to seeing you at Camp!